Please arrange to have Mr. J. Cook, Clerical Assistant, devote all his time until further order to his duties as a member of the staff of S.B. He should exercise special care in reading the Russian and German newspapers and either translate or arrange to have translated everything of interest from a police point of view. He should be especially careful to translate advertisements and reports in Russian newspapers on the subject of memorial celebrations, observance of anniversaries, special religious services and meetings of all kinds. He should also endeavour to obtain news about any similar functions being organized secretly, and report any information he obtains. He should also by reading the Russian newspapers and making inquiries endeavour to obtain information about activities on the part of "Red" Russians which may even remotely be expected to lead to a breach of the peace.

In order to ensure that Mr. Cook will be able to give adequate attention to the Foreign press in English and other languages, D.P.S. Lockwood will for the time being transfer to the staff of S.B and assist in the censoring of pictures. D.P.S. Lockwood can spend any time he has to spare learning the work of the Registry and making himself acquainted with the duties of the Special Branch as a whole.
